Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp.

This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Miles Davis

Your Life Progressions for Jan 1, 2010

Leo on the First Cusp

You possess a personal magnetic appeal that draws admiration from others. You have self-assurance, coupled with a dramatic flair that desires to be the center of attention. You may speak more loudly than you have in the past. You want very much for others to hear your opinions and may, at times, be too aggressive in the attempt. Upgrading your appearance is important, as you seek the latest styles and better quality. You want to project an air of authority, and you long for personal independence in your career. If you do not have your own business, you would prefer the role of leadership in a supervisory position. This is the time to undertake new studies that can aid you in the career of your choice. Romance and investments are highlighted -- as are the affairs of children (not necessarily your own). Someone within your immediate environment may experience problems with their eyes, back, or heart. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Sun, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Sun in Leo

Your progressed Sun has entered into the positive and outgoing sign of Leo. There is a dramatic flair that colors your mode of expression. You are becoming more ambitious, independent, and magnanimous. This tends to draw the admiration from others that you now crave. You may find that past restrictions or family responsibilities are lessening, providing you with more time to pursue personal goals, seek public recognition, and perhaps obtain a position of management or control over others. You are taking more pains with your appearance and style of dress. There is a deep sense of pride in personal accomplishments and a desire to bring them to the attention of others. There is a compelling air of self-confidence, a commanding nature and dignity that projects you as a person of authority. Through sheer will-power and persistency, you will be able to attain the success you so desire. Children, education, creativity, romance, and investments are highlighted. The men that enter your life at this time will be younger or act younger than their years. They will have an upright carriage, a regal bearing, dress well, and have preference for quality.

Sun in the First House

Strive to develop a better personality and strengthen your self-confidence in order to open the door to greater attainments with excellent results. Independence and leadership qualities are pronounced. Arriving at decisions and conclusions of personal plans on your own will prove more beneficial than accepting the counsel of others. It may be difficult for you to accept a position of lesser status than you desire, for your sense of pride in personal attainments is very strong at this time. The affairs, actions, or interests of male relationships will play an important role in circumstances surrounding your personal or family affairs.

Sun Conjunction Neptune (Prg-Prg) Mar 3, 2011

You'll have to keep your head out of the clouds during this three-year period. There is the tendency to view the outside world through rose-colored glasses and not see things as they really are. A charming yet disconcerted quality implies that you may be gullible and easily manipulated. If you are aware of these dubious influences, you can protect yourself by questioning the motives of all proffered suggestions and ideas. Don't fall prey to get-rich schemes or become involved with people who want to use you for their own selfish gain. On the positive side, this can increase your psychic ability and inspire creative and artistic interests. There are indications of meeting the ideal romantic partner, but something deters this relationship from culminating into marriage. There is the possibility that one or both of the parties may already be married or be burdened with the care of an ill family member. There is the possibility of gaining a step-father. Keep a watchful eye on children who may come down with an illness requiring a hospital stay.

Neptune in the First House

Others are beginning to view you as being somewhat moody and temperamental when actually you may be taking a stand against the tiresome routine of being gullible and manipulated. You will consciously or unconsciously take on the conditions of your surroundings and of those with whom you come in contact. With this in mind, be very selective of friends and of those in your immediate environment. Maintain an atmosphere of peace and serenity through light-colored walls and furniture. You may have the ability to develop the art of visualization -- to view in your mind's eye the problem that confronts you at the moment -- and the capacity to reach a solution quickly and accurately. When discordant situations arise, leaving you feeling emotionally drained and upset, seek escape through long walks in the woods, fishing, boating, swimming, or music, or just return to bed for a few more hours of harmless daydreaming. Avoid the temptation for release through alcohol or drug abuse. Your life may be influenced by psychics, mediums, musicians, physicians, and those who are mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped, or have a dependency upon medication, drugs, or alcohol.

Venus Trine Ascendant (Prg-Nat) May 5, 2011

Your charming, gracious, and cheerful personality generates warm responses from others. There may be an opportunity for marriage or the formation of a strong, durable relationship. Your social life should be quite busy with many extended invitations. This is a good time to purchase property, art objects, or to utilize new methods to increase the financial structure.

Virgo on the Second Cusp

Constructive developments, either through work or business, can enhance your financial structure. Although formerly you may have detested routine work, you will probably find yourself in a position where proper attention to details will be required. Your daily routine may involve keeping records of travel expenses or of special equipment purchased in your line of work. You may be spending more than you have in the past for health care or products -- not necessarily for yourself, but possibly for your marriage partner or a domestic pet.

Libra on the Third Cusp

Circumstances warrant a diplomatic approach in your everyday contact with others. You may find yourself in the role of doing public relations work where finesse, charm, and a persuasive manner are a must. You may make a considerable number of short trips in connection with pleasures, social activities, and business. Companionships will be an essential factor to your mental well being, as you find little pleasure in doing things alone. It is possible that you may enter into some kind of mutual enterprise with a brother or sister. In other cases, you may have to keep records for your marriage or business partner.

Scorpio on the Fourth Cusp

There appears to be a lot of tension, emotional upheaval, and turbulent events surrounding your home life. This may account for your desire to be a loner, remain aloof, and keep your private life to yourself. Changes are likely to occur regarding property and finances. Severe weather conditions may have damaged your home, requiring insurance settlements and a rebuilding of the unit. Or, job and marriage difficulties may call for a second mortgage. In some cases there is loss of a family member, usually a grandparent. Whatever the situation may be, you have the extraordinary will-power to handle it. This sign is associated with surgery on the sexual parts in connection with one of the parents.

Moon in the Fourth House

This trend seldom passes without some kind of change or altering of conditions within the immediate environment. Someone is likely to leave or enter your home base. Be selective of whom you share your living quarters with; they can have a positive or negative affect upon your emotions. Nothing is more disturbing than lack of peace and harmony in the serenity of the nest, which is your protection from the outside world. Should the situation warrant it, you may decide to purchase or sell property. Moving, enlarging, or remodeling of your present home or apartment is yet another possibility. Affairs of parents, a parent-in-law, or another close member of the family may require your personal attention. Note the sign position of your progressed Moon for additional influences affecting the home base.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Pluto (Prg-Nat) Jan 13, 2010

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Trine Venus (Prg-Prg) Jan 27, 2010

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be one of the best periods for financial success and social advancements. Your feelings and emotions are aroused and will find a satisfactory outlet through present or new attachments. Should situations permit, this may be the time for engagements or marriage. Social functions, invitations, and receiving of flowers or gifts are highlighted. One may also look forward to a prosperous time for finances or investments. While these opportunities may present themselves, it will be up to you to take the initiative and promote these activities into action.

Moon Trine Uranus (Prg-Prg) Jan 28, 2010

Fresh starts and greater magnetic attraction toward the opposite sex (and people in general) may be the trend for the next few months. Excitement is in the air, bringing changes of an unexpected nature that may completely change your entire routine existence. There is the possibility of sudden and unexpected financial or material gains. Unexpected and beneficial influences that hold the promise of improvements, advancements, and possibly a whole new way of life. You may receive a commendation or recognition from a club or organization. Take advantage of this beneficial period by advancing personal interests. Consider different and unusual studies or travel, and remove the outgrown and obsolete to make way for the new and unique.

Moon Trine Uranus (Prg-Nat) Jan 29, 2010

Moon Sesquiquadrate Pluto (Prg-Prg) Mar 11, 2010

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Opposition Sun (Prg-Nat) Jun 10, 2010

You are entering a critical position in which trying conditions of anxiety and worry may be experienced. Changes are par for the course, resulting in a break-up of existing conditions or separation from close ties. Social activities may be at a standstill or prove to be a disappointment. Feelings and emotions are vulnerable and likely to suffer through loss of pride and dignity. The following three months are a time for major decisions and for recognizing the need for a new direction in life. You will have to clarify your goals and personal desires, and then take the necessary steps to set them in motion.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Venus (Prg-Nat) Aug 8, 2010

Do not place too much emphasis on events or relationships that surround your life during this trend. You can be easily hurt by placing stronger attachments to matters or individuals than is really there. Your feelings and emotions are liable to suffer by the thoughtless actions of another. Best to keep your emotions under control during this short duration, to avoid possible quarrels or separation from loved ones. There is also the possibility of some financial loss or setbacks.

Moon Opposition Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Sep 29, 2010

Whether or not you are living with your parents, they are bound to feel you are being defiant of their wishes. They may be against your choice of relationships, style of dress, or opposed to the idea of your wanting a place of your own. Whatever the issue, try to seek a compromise. Your sense of logic may be distorted at this time by your emotions. This is not one of the best situations under which to make major decisions or pursue personal changes. Try to put off marriage plans or joining a partnership enterprise for a few more months. At that time your emotions will not be involved when confronted with these major decisions.

Moon Quincunx Mars (Prg-Prg) Oct 26, 2010

These three months can yield constructive energy if applied wisely. You will be able to accomplish much in the way of hard work or the handling of difficult tasks. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and forego new attachments until this trend has passed. This is not the best time for travel, working with mechanical equipment, or machinery. Avoid excitement and overactivity, especially if you exercise.

Moon Trine Mercury (Prg-Prg) Nov 21, 2010

Your mental energy is stimulated and flows with a positive influence. It should be easy at this time to learn and grasp more knowledge than usual -- to undertake, and pass, driving or written tests. This is a fortunate and successful period for all mental applications. Excellent for writing, handling of correspondence, and negotiations -- buying or selling of property and real estate. Be alert for new business opportunities. Favorable trends for traveling, and for affairs of siblings and other close relationships.

Moon Sextile Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Apr 14, 2011

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Venus (Prg-Prg) May 1, 2011

Do not place too much emphasis on events or relationships that surround your life during this trend. You can be easily hurt by placing stronger attachments to matters or individuals than is really there. Your feelings and emotions are liable to suffer by the thoughtless actions of another. Best to keep your emotions under control during this short duration, to avoid possible quarrels or separation from loved ones. There is also the possibility of some financial loss or setbacks.

Moon Square Mars (Prg-Nat) May 10, 2011

An extraordinary amount of energy can be unleashed, either in the negative or positive sense. It all depends upon your own attitude, and whether or not you can direct this physical and mental energy through constructive channels. This excessive force must be controlled if you are to avoid impulsive and hasty actions that you will later regret. Realize that this is an accident-prone tendency, so use care in driving and handling of sharp instruments. Be tolerant with close ties. Abrupt speech can cause hurt feelings and lead to unnecessary quarrels. Get a check-up where fevers, inflammations, or infections persist.

Moon Trine Venus (Prg-Nat) Sep 22, 2011

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be one of the best periods for financial success and social advancements. Your feelings and emotions are aroused and will find a satisfactory outlet through present or new attachments. Should situations permit, this may be the time for engagements or marriage. Social functions, invitations, and receiving of flowers or gifts are highlighted. One may also look forward to a prosperous time for finances or investments. While these opportunities may present themselves, it will be up to you to take the initiative and promote these activities into action.

Moon Trine Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Oct 1, 2011

Emotional stability and good judgment can open the door to new opportunities for advancement. Seek positive changes in all directions of life, whether vocational, domestic, or personal. You exude great rapport at this time. Social contacts with women, and the general public, can produce beneficial results. Family matters should be on even keel, with a general feeling of contentment.

Moon Quincunx Mercury (Prg-Nat) Oct 18, 2011

This is a period in which mental independence in speaking and general correspondence is stressed. A good time to make plans for future study courses or learning new skills and techniques. During the next few months you may be kept rather busy providing services for others -- perhaps driving them to dental appointments or other such commitments.

Moon Sextile Jupiter (Prg-Prg) Oct 26, 2011

Good fortune smiles at you through general prosperity or material gain. It is a good time to push personal and business affairs, and take advantage of new opportunities for future expansion. You may get a chance to travel or experience pleasurable contacts from those living in distant cities. Your positive outlook during this trend should bring you in touch with new friends or acquaintances and increase social contacts.

Moon Trine Neptune (Prg-Nat) Nov 3, 2011

Your psychic ability may be favorably attuned to positive and accurate impressions. Unusual interests may draw you into studying psychic awareness, yoga, mind control, ESP, psychology, or photography. New individuals may enter your life who possess a sensitive, caring nature.

Moon Semisquare Moon (Prg-Nat) Dec 3, 2011

Take time out for frequent rest periods or brief naps as your vitality and energy level are rather low. The next three months are not the best time to seek favors from women in general. Emotional instability may cause one to over-react to minor, yet critical statements made by others. Family members may not be as cooperative as you would like. It is an emotionally trying time, in which you should seek quiet periods of isolation, and avoid public contacts for a while.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Mars (Prg-Prg) Dec 22, 2011

Impulsive decisions or hasty actions can lead to possible accidents or quarrels with loved ones. Abrupt statements made at this time are likely to be cause for regret later. Don't push for important changes or take unnecessary risks. Work out this excessive energy through repairing, painting, or completion of difficult tasks. Be aware that certain risks are involved. Use caution in new undertakings or ventures.

Saturn in the Fourth House

You are becoming extremely security-minded with a strong desire for an organized life. You want to own property away from the close scrutiny of neighbors, surrounded by woods and land. You have the ability to save and accumulate money or possessions as you become more prudent in financial matters. A deep sense of responsibility appears to surround your home base. Perhaps your present environment is creating more work and upkeep than you first anticipated. Your mortgage payments may be burdensome. Or a parent may come to share your home, restricting your personal freedom and social life. Benefits are possible through a parent or other members of the family.

Ascendant Square Saturn (Prg-Prg) Jun 14, 2010

You may feel hindered, depressed, and burdened with heavy responsibilities. No matter how hard you try, the ability to relate to others in a warm and friendly manner appears to be blocked. You seem to be pulled into a condition that requires hard, laborious efforts and an isolated condition from which to operate. All things seem to go wrong, beset by hindering circumstances. You may have trouble with an older person, a figure of authority, or parents. Be careful of possible accidents and the liability to frequent colds and chills.

Sagittarius on the Fifth Cusp

It is possible to play the role of instructor during this trend. You are quite versatile in your hobbies and talents. Why not contact your local adult education center and see what you can offer? You are less intense in your romantic attachments, seeking partners that are more outgoing, sports minded, and of the same intellectual caliber. Children are thinking about a college education. Others may move to distant cities, which may activate future travels on your part. At some point during this trend, you may have to assist a child in resolving a legal issue. Your second sibling may temporarily relocate. If interested in investments, look to foreign products, exports, airlines, and sporting goods.

Capricorn on the Sixth Cusp

You are developing strong traits in organizing ability, efficiency, and acceptance of responsibility. You work well alone, and at some time during this trend, you may have to work the evening or night shift. There is a strong possibility you may work for the government, or there may be a governmental contract at your place of employment that requires you to wear an identification badge during this trend. If you are on salary, there is the tendency for supervisors to burden you with more than your share of work. Your only alternative is to demand extra monetary compensation. Make it a point to have lots of hot beverages and plenty of soup during winter months to keep the body temperature warm.

Aquarius on the Seventh Cusp

Friends, clubs, and associations will be instrumental in providing you with an active social life. You are seeking a marriage or business partner who can act independently and decisively -- but not erratically, for you are a fixed sign and like a certain amount of routine in your everyday existence. Accept your partner's needs and desires for close friendships, whether you approve of them or not.

Jupiter in the Seventh House

Others are drawn to your attractive personality, grace, charm, and tactful manner. Social contacts can be very beneficial, providing a means of contacting influential and prominent people who can help promote future progress. There is a willingness to cooperate with close ties, associates, and business partnerships. This placement can enhance the opportunity for marriage -- if not for yourself, then for those within the immediate family. Any form of travel is likely to be in the company of another person or because of their influence. People of all colors, races, religions, and walks of life will touch upon your personal affairs during this trend. Many long distance phone calls, letters, and trips will revolve around a close relationship.

Pisces on the Eighth Cusp

You have a vivid imagination when it comes to sexual fantasy. The ideal romantic atmosphere would include a mixed drink or two, a sheer nighty, dim lights, soft music, and the pitter-patter of rain drops on the window pane. You are also quite sensitive and easily hurt if someone should criticize your sexual proclivities. Always make it a point to save your receipts and records with major purchases. It will help you avoid a constant flow of confusion through billing systems and computers that keep insisting you owe them money. Be alert to possible deception through partnership funds or investment schemes. During this trend it is possible that institutional or private care of someone who is emotionally, mentally, or physically ill may be financially draining.

Uranus in the Eighth House

New and revolutionary ideas may create the process of transformation of old projects toward the construction of something different. Many upheavals and drastic changes are to be expected in connection with joint finances. There may be sudden and unexpected gains or losses through your spouse, business partner, or associates connected with mutual funds. Repairs for computers, machinery, electrical appliances, or auto parts occur at the most inopportune time financially. Clubs and organizations that require long-term payments for membership should be given careful consideration. This placement is associated with unusual psychic phenomena, dreams, or astral experiences.

Midheaven Semisquare Uranus (Prg-Prg) Oct 8, 2011

There is the possibility of upsetting changes, loss, or complete reversal of occupational duties. New bosses may change or alter your normal routine. There may be a sudden cutback in working hours or a change of shifts. Whatever the circumstances, they will be abrupt, sudden, and totally unexpected. You may rebel against authority or undue pressure to inhibit your independent spirit. Possible loss or separation from a parent, grandparent, boss, or other figure of authority.

Aries on the Ninth Cusp

Distant matters, higher education, and travel will require your personal attention. It is possible you will take a course in the martial arts or learn the basic rules of sports such as volleyball ball or racquetball. You may have to travel alone from time to time, perhaps in connection with your vocation. Legal action on your part is likely to be over mechanical defects of a large purchase or a possible accident.

Mars in Taurus

The challenging ventures or business enterprises entered into while Mars was in Aries should prove gainful at this time, as Mars now progresses into the money sign of Taurus. This position can introduce new opportunities for channeling financial matters through conservative and practical outlets. You will be more persistent in your efforts and actions, even when a course of action hits a snag. Your indomitable courage will aid you in attacking these problems with more patience than in the past. Guard against obstinate views that can hinder financial progress. Influential men are likely to touch upon your life at this time. Some will be a source of monetary gain or drain.

Mars in the Ninth House

You are very enthusiastic in what you believe, but you may not always be successful in convincing others of your enterprising ideas, especially those who may regard your actions as hasty or somewhat premature. Your spirit of adventure and interest in travel may take you to far away places. New and challenging experiences are likely through the meeting of prominent people, foreigners, or those of a different background than your own. Always give yourself ample time to reach your destination when driving to distant places, thereby avoiding the necessity for speed and possible traffic violations. Unavoidable accidents may lead to a lawsuit, perhaps through the unwise and hasty actions of another. In some cases, legal action may be filed against a manufacturer who will not rectify mechanical defects in a car, an appliance, or other machinery. This placement is often associated with surgery involving an in-law or someone living in a distant city.

Moon Opposition Mars (Prg-Nat) Jun 12, 2010

You are likely to experience an emotional confrontation with a close attachment or with family members. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and curb the tendency to be short-tempered or irritable with those you love. Personal affairs and new undertakings should be carefully thought out, as they are likely to meet with obstacles and opposition. This trend is of short duration. It would be wise if you could put off signing papers or making important decisions until your judgment is more rational.

Taurus on the Tenth Cusp

Your goal in life at this time is to advance financially in your chosen profession. You would like nothing better than to make a lucky coup in some business venture. Financial situations require careful watching. Overextension of monetary affairs can lead to damaged credit ratings, consolidating of bills, or obtaining a second mortgage. A parent may be a good source for financial assistance.

Midheaven Sextile Pluto (Prg-Nat) Apr 23, 2011

You have the will-power, strength of endurance, and the courage to make this trend a turning point in your career. You have an urge for recognition, and a position of authority and control can be within your grasp. There is the possibility of gaining long overdue advancements. Carefully organize and plan your objectives, and take the deliberate action necessary to achieve your goal. Associate with influential people who can be of beneficial assistance. A parent may be a source of financial or material gain.

Midheaven Semisquare Uranus (Prg-Nat) Nov 10, 2011

There is the possibility of upsetting changes, loss, or complete reversal of occupational duties. New bosses may change or alter your normal routine. There may be a sudden cutback in working hours or a change of shifts. Whatever the circumstances, they will be abrupt, sudden, and totally unexpected. You may rebel against authority or undue pressure to inhibit your independent spirit. Possible loss or separation from a parent, grandparent, boss, or other figure of authority.

Gemini on the Eleventh Cusp

You will make new friends who are witty, active, and intellectual. Clubs, organizations, and group activities involving manual dexterity and quickness of motion (such as golfing, racquetball, volleyball, or karate) will hold strong interest. There is the possibility of a secretarial position or keeping records for an organization. Your present hopes and wishes appear to be based on educational advancements.

Pluto in the Eleventh House

Your goals and objectives may be centered around joint finances. Material or financial gain from the resources of others -- insurance, inheritance, winning of a lottery, bingo, contests, or gambling. It is possible for those of questionable character (such as bookies or racketeers) to enter your life during this trend. A more progressive club or organization would interest you at this time. You may feel that certain changes are necessary and take the required steps toward reformation of the associations you join. You would make a good promoter, for you may have the ability to sway large groups or masses of people. Certain friends may be extremely jealous and possessive, trying to exert a controlling, dominating, influence over you. Others may assist in helping you make positive changes, such as the elimination of undesirable habits. Should you marry someone with children, guard against resentment of their having to pay child support.

Cancer on the Twelfth Cusp

You are super sensitive about criticism and rejection from others. You won't wear your heart on your sleeve. No one will ever know the emotional hurt you experience, because it is so deeply imbedded and hidden. You have strong maternal and protective instincts for the handicapped and the downtrodden. Environmental conditions can affect your emotional state. You require an atmosphere of tranquility and harmony before you can function well.

Mercury in Leo

Mercury governs the intellect. As it progresses into the sign of Leo, you will become more direct, confident, and positive in your thinking. Your organizing ability is enhanced, and you will have a greater scope for handling responsibilities. At times you will still be controlled by your emotions, especially when you are deeply hurt or rejected. But, your present affirmative attitude will not permit you to dwell too long on past hurts. There will be a noticeable dramatic flair and colorful expression to your manner of speaking. If you are not presently a teacher, you may be drawn into this new and exciting role, either assisting others to learn specific information or teaching them new techniques in their line of work. Children (your own or those of siblings or close ties) may play an important role in your life. Mental application may be directed toward the study of investment programs or new creative hobbies.

Mercury Retrograde

Mercury is the planet of mental application. It has changed direction since its placement at birth and is now retrograde in motion. Certain prevailing conditions in your life may alter your present state of mind. You may feel compelled to change your mental attitude. Thought and action may be re-routed into new avenues of expression. You may (or perhaps already have) give serious consideration to immediate changes within the environment. Affairs regarding brothers and sisters may require your personal attention.

Mercury in the Twelfth House

You have pronounced psychic or intuitive ability. You are receptive to the thoughts of others, with the capacity to read their mind. You can tell instinctively when someone is holding something back or trying to deceive you. With proper training, you can develop the art of visualization (being able to foresee in your mind's eye the problem that confronts you at the moment, viewing the solution, and then resolving it). You are quite secretive, so it may be rather difficult to share your thoughts with others. This is a good time to undergo deep research if your job requires it. You may have to find a secret hiding place to be truly productive -- somewhere free from interference that tends to disrupt your train of thought. Always be discreet about what you say or write on paper, to avoid any possibility of it being used against you. This placement is associated with sorrows, hospitalization, or an illness connected with a brother or sister.

Venus in Cancer

As your progressed Venus enters into the sign of Cancer, it opens the door to exceptionally emotional and sensitive feelings. Attachments mean everything to you as your previous lighthearted attitude begins to wane. You are tired of flirtatious affairs. You are seeking a deeper commitment, a more steadfast relationship, no matter what the age gap. A deep sense of security may urge you to invest in property or beautify your present home to enhance its value. Sentimentality with family ties and parental devotion is strengthened. Older or mature women will be a source of financial or material gain or loss.

Venus in the Twelfth House

You have great receptivity for art, music, and beautiful surroundings. Excessive noise, arguments, or upheaval in your environment is very upsetting to your sense of balance and well-being. You desire peace and harmony at all costs; if necessary you will seek seclusion to attain it. Your nature is refined, gracious, and well-mannered. You loathe coarse language, and will walk away from anyone who tries to use it in an argument. It may be difficult for you to outwardly express your affections, for you can be quite secretive concerning your emotions. Do not permit others to work on your sympathy and thereby talk you into lending them monetary or material goods. This is a sensitive placement that may one day introduce a female into your life who will be emotionally, mentally, or physically handicapped. She may teach you how to develop strength of character and compassion for others.

Venus Trine Uranus (Prg-Prg) Feb 4, 2010

Latent original, creative, and inventive abilities may develop into moneymaking hobbies. Make the most of this trend by reviewing your unique talents and determining how you can expand upon them. This period has all the earmarks of a changing condition that is likely to produce a pleasant, altering state of affairs. There is a magnetic quality about you that is likely to draw unconventional -- yet exciting -- social and romantic opportunities. There is a chance of financial gain through artistic pursuits, romantic attachments and marriage, or business partnerships. You may be offered a public relations position, or one as social director for a club or organization, or for a company involved with group-related activities.

Venus Sesquiquadrate Mars (Prg-Nat) Aug 12, 2011

You may experience some excess of feelings and emotions, which should be kept under control. This is not the time to act indiscreetly, on impulse, and without proper forethought. Yielding to temptation can get you into situations you are likely to regret. Apply this excessive emotional energy to creative projects such as interior decorating or painting. Just don't go overboard financially; extravagant tendencies can also be a problem.
