Introduction

Independent of mind and spirit, cats have always displayed outright indignant behavior at any attempt to train them. Having a mind of their own and a highly changeable nature, cats are unlike any other animal you've owned. The favorites of many, they are misunderstood by all. Astrology helps us to understand some of the quirks these highly intelligent animals display.

Are they good house pets or will they drive you crazy until, against your better judgement, you let them out? Refined hunting skills and sharp instincts are common traits of most cats. Some are known for their patience, or perhaps for nurturing others. Others just prefer your lap, or to lounge on the sofa until served their favorite meal.

The many personalities we see displayed in these wonderful creatures are all part of the plan. Would you automatically choose a beautiful Taurus Cat if you knew that Venus will always make him attractive? Xander's chart can show you just how important some things are for his survival. What makes Xander tick and what can he absolutely not do without? How can you add more enjoyment to Xander's life? Does he need companionship or is he just as happy not sharing your attentions with another cat? These are some of the questions we seek to answer when looking at our beloved feline's chart. Astrology can guide you to get the most enjoyment out of your cat. Xander will thank you for it.

There are 4 basic elements that make up a chart; they are earth, water, air and fire. If Xander has four or more planets in one of these elements he is considered to have more than average. Applying a weight or number to these planets, we can determine if the chart has tendencies that would be influenced by being overweighted in that particular element. The Ascendant, Midheaven and planets on the angles are also given a number, which is included in determining the makeup of a chart.

Element Emphasis

Water Sign Emphasis: (Score of 11,2,13,2)

Xander is your soul mate and feels lost and useless unless attending to your needs. Clingy and possessive of your time, Xander may not take well to sharing your attentions. If hurt often, Xander can be found retreating to more suitable quarters. Xander is more than sensitive to loud noises and upsets in the environment and he is scared of thunder. Xander loves water and can often be found in your sink; baths can even be tolerated if absolutely necessary. Often the caretaker of you and other animals, Xander likes to see everyone get along, occasionally adopting others to care for when necessary. Keep this cat close to your heart and you've gained a loyal friend for life. Xander will not tolerate being separated from you for long periods and may do best with another animal he can bond with while you're away.

Ascendant

The Ascendant, or sign on the horizon at birth, changes approximately every two hours. To get a true picture of an animal, an exact time of birth is very helpful. From the Ascendant, not only do we learn the appearance and characteristics of an animal, we also derive a pattern of the chart itself. The Ascendant is the face we show to strangers - animal and human alike. We may view Xander as his Sun sign, but other will see the sign on the Ascendant first. The rising sign dictates how Xander portrays himself to others. These characteristics are entirely different from what we see when Xander is in his home environment. Learn more about how others view Xander.

Sagittarius Rising:

Xander is a bit of a wanderer, gone for days at a time only to return disheveled and starving. With a love of travel and an eye for adventure, he may make you wonder if you truly own a cat. Xander can have quite a range of territory to explore so it may take him longer to return home. Keep a door always open for this feline. Xander makes it his business to live by his own time schedule. Xander might be considered the ring leader of a group of animals. He knows how to have fun and will find ways of showing other animals how to enjoy themselves. Xander is frequently found stirring the pot by starting a chase through the house with other animals. Give Xander plenty of room to run and he will always come back.

Sun

The Sun is Xander's source of energy and vitality. Its placement in his chart indicates Xander's true identity, which may or may not always be apparent. Just watch the façade that appears when Xander is placed in the position of meeting newcomers. The side that he shows to others may be very different from the one you saw a few minutes ago when you were all alone with him. And that's only after Xander trusts you enough to show it. The basic needs and patterns in Xander's life are strongly influenced by the sign and placement of the Sun. This is where Xander puts his best paw forward. This is what Xander is really like when all barriers and inhibitions are removed. He gets recognition here sometimes, making a visible difference in your world, too. You will always remember Xander by the characteristics displayed by the Sun even if it's just a quirk or habit. Sometimes it is beneficial in naming your new kitten to use your keen observation to help you find a suitable title to call him by. Try to determine what it is that makes him stand out from the rest by discovering the Sun sign individuality of your cat.

Sun in Scorpio:

Xander owns you and will go to lengths to show you this, sometimes spraying your clothing with his own personal scent. Xander would not want any old tomcat to think it could take his place. Xander may be the one that you can never find in the house. "Secret passages everywhere, bet you can't find me," is what you can hear Xander saying while you search frantically throughout the house. Why did you have to yell at him last night? Sensitive Scorpio's pride hurts easily so you can expect a no show for at least 24 hours. This is a common punishment he gives you. Be true to Xander always, and use caution if bringing a new animal into the house. Never liking to share you with others, Xander may show you just how dissatisfied he is. He is inflexible and stubborn so don't try to change his private areas. Xander will not take too kindly to this, making it difficult to break him of bad habits. Check out Xander's private stash sometime, if you can find it. Always ready to investigate for mice under the porch, Xander waits endlessly to make his catch.

Sun in the 12th house:

Keep your eye out for those who might want to hurt Xander. A daydreamer by nature, Xander would like to be provided with a comfortable nest, preferably one that is near water. A birdbath or fountain to watch could give Xander entertainment for life. Keep him safe from harm by watching over him; he is so wrapped up in his dreams that often he forgets who's the boss. It might require devious measures to place Xander in a crate to take to the vet. Heed signals that this cat displays - the data you collect may give you cause for dismay.

Sun Trine Moon:

Xander learned a long time ago how to get your attention. He has you so well trained you don't even know it yet. He is a true manipulator; his affections are a good indication of who is feeding him. Loyal to none, Xander will go to anyone who shows him the least bit of attention. He performs well and will surprise you by coming when called, having learned long ago the rewards this brings.

Moon

The Moon tells us how Xander bonds emotionally with us and his other feline friends. It's hard to believe, but cats really are moved by emotions - some more than others. If you ever really want to know what makes your kitty enjoy life look to the Moon sign. Soon you will discover what he can't live without. It could be something as simple as a catnip mouse, but it will bring lasting enjoyment and a bond with you that will be memorable for life. Learn what your cat desires the most.

Moon in Cancer:

Xander may seem to attach himself to your side no matter how old he is. Never far from you, Xander can be described as angel or pest depending on what you happen to be doing at the time. He has an attachment to the human or feline mother for life. It will be difficult for him to separate until later in life and even then the bond continues. Close to home and in the secure safety of your arms, Xander thrives on the emotional bond you provide for him. The kitchen is truly Xander's favorite room and he probably owns a special spot or perch there, away from the other animals in your house. Meal time can present a challenge; only under calm circumstances should Xander be allowed to eat, because he is prone to stomach problems that are very much linked to his emotional state. A need to eat without duress will be a priority throughout Xander's life. Also, provide a relaxing, calm atmosphere when laying out treats for him. A desire to care for others and give them the nurturing they need to survive will surface when younger animals or child are present in the home. Xander will feel it necessary to treat you in the same manner, caring for you when you are sick or in need of a little attention that no one else can deliver.

Moon in the 8th house:

Xander looks at you as the one who holds the key - the key to the food and snack box - and he is depending on you using it as often as possible. Xander knows a good thing when he's found it. You're the provider and he is sure of it. Xander will do tricks for you so that you continue to provide. He likes to feel you owe him something. Don't forget to bring catnip toys and treats home for Xander. He gets to expect it and feels let down when they are not forthcoming. Xander looks through shopping bags until he finds what's rightfully his - you'd better stock up now. Xander owns you and don't forget it! When strangers come, he thinks nothing of marking the territory even if that includes you. Watch as he marks you by rubbing his neck and head all over you letting scent gland odors penetrate your clothing. You're his and nobody else's.

Moon Trine Sun:

A pleasant and affectionate companion for life, Xander will reward you with attention and playfulness. Throw a few paper balls for him to retrieve. Showing a friendly nature towards all, Xander may even enlist the help of other animals in your household. Secure in his surroundings, Xander can make you feel welcome in his home. A friendly nudge with playful paw starts a game of catnip mouse and you're a friend for life. Xander enjoys the company of other animals or humans and is not timid in the least.

Mercury

Mercury, the planet of communications, suggests how felines communicate with us. There are many different forms of communication besides meowing. Body language will also give us clues into what our cats want. But their most important form of communication is reflected in their ability to send messages telepathically. Some cats are better at this than others but equally important is our receptiveness to such information. We all know how Xander can get his point across when he wants to. Now learn what you can do to facilitate greater sensitivity to what it is your cat has to say.

Mercury in Sagittarius:

This cat is a wild spirit hard to tame - you may want to include Xander in walks through the woods. His desire is to be a part of the wild again and he resorts to instinct to survive naturally. This need may prevent him from ever being a complete house cat. Travel is most important on Xander's agenda - you may want to include many friends that he can visit on his route. The neighbor's goat or horse can all be included in Xander's daily visits. Known for being the diplomat amongst animals, Xander may see to it that all get along and know their pecking order.

Mercury in the 12th house:

Quieter and more reserved than most, Xander may need coaxing from his secret hiding place. Xander needs you to know that he is totally dependent on your love and attention and without that he may wither up and die. Without desire to meet new animals or people, Xander can be quite content with your eyes only. Often seen as a loner, Xander is more than happy just being at home. His imagination lends plenty of entertainment to make the day go by fast.

Mercury Square Uranus:

Unpredictable and detached in nature, Xander is fine-tuned to every thought and sound. He is a good predictor of weather - lightning will make Xander head for the nearest shelter or under your bed. He is not in the least interested in socializing with others and may be considered a bit of an anarchist. It is best to give Xander plenty of space from unruly children or other disturbances and be ready for changes. Xander is unpredictable in his needs for affection and will certainly let you know when he feels slighted.

Venus

Venus shows us how sociable Xander can be. It gives us a clue as to what he is attracted to. This can range from inanimate objects to objects of desire. Venus exerts an energy that attracts you and others to Xander like a magnet. How your feline returns this affection is revealed by Venus. Venus can determine whether Xander has a pleasant disposition or is of a less affectionate nature.

Venus in Sagittarius:

Xander loves to wander near and far, almost like the town crier letting everyone know the latest news. Seen crying from the nearest treetop or high-rise, Xander will tell quite a tale. Xander makes friends with all species of animals without any difficulty. A bit wild in nature, he may not be the most affectionate cat, much preferring the wild to indoor life, at least while he is young. Keep Xander entertained by including him on a few of your own excursions. Bring Xander with you on the next vacation and watch what he has to say then.

Venus in the 1st house:

The pick of the litter. Attractive and cute, Xander charmed his way right into your heart. A pleasant melody to his meow is an extra bonus. A love of music could have Xander making the top of the stereo speakers his home. There's a rhythm to his purr that falls right in step with any music that may be playing. His long meow seem to be singing to you. He is affectionate by nature - you can count on Xander to want frequent attention.

Venus Square Mars:

Xander can be too pushy for his own good. Expecting attention and receiving none might be just the excuse he needs to provoke you. Xander's activity level can irk you at times, especially during those early morning hours. Not knowing when to stop, Xander takes it to extremes. He knows no limits and will not like confinement. It is best to provide Xander with lots of play time so he can eliminate all that excess energy.

Venus Square Jupiter:

Xander may have been given up for adoption and completely rejected by mother or partner for no good reasons. A fine survivor on the outside, Xander may be covering up a fear of rejection. His large heart has been wounded and time and respect are the only things that will mend it.

Venus Conjunct Pluto:

There is no way you can refuse this big cat. What Xander wants, Xander gets. A bit pushy, Xander likes to feel he is the boss. When you don't give him satisfaction, Xander is known to roar like a lion and let you know exactly how he feels in no uncertain terms. It's his way or the highway.

Mars

Mars shows how Xander expresses his energy and enthusiasm for life. Mars gives passion and vitality to the place in the astrology chart where it is located.

Mars in Pisces:

A true friend for life, Xander spends his whole energy in life caring for you and other animals, often adopting younger animals to care for. Too compassionate to kill, Xander much prefers the companionship of other species. A humanitarian cat can only go so far before hunger intervenes but Xander will try to be kind in any necessary act of sacrifice.

Mars in the 3rd house:

Talk, talk, talk and then talk some more. If there is any time that this kitty doesn't sing for his supper then you better head to the doctor. Xander knows just the right pitch cry to get you moving in the morning. He also knows the right tune to use when you return home every night. Even if he is mad about you leaving, at least you are able to see how he reacts to all of this. An alarm clock wouldn't serve you better than old Xander.

Mars Square Venus:

Sometimes you find Xander's actions distasteful. It's not that he does them intentionally to displease you, but he can't always help himself. Just because Xander is sometimes unable to please you by doing things your way like other normal kittens do, does not mean that you should love him any less. Allow him territorial displays as long as they don't involve hurting another animal.

Mars Opposition Jupiter:

Xander doesn't know when to stop pestering other animals or sometimes, you, until you submit. He does not always understand the meaning of "no" - Xander will push you to your limit. He wants more until his sides burst from eating too much. Keep this feline on a good diet so obesity won't set in when activity levels wind down.

Mars Trine Saturn:

Xander is one tough cookie. He is hard as nails - you have to admire Xander just for his sheer determination. Often a survivor of some harsh environment, Xander lives to tell all. He gives off that "don't mess with me" attitude and others take heed. Xander can show his dominant and forceful personality when you try to introduce another animal into the household. It would be best to give plenty of time and space for introductions, whether human or animal.

Jupiter

Jupiter is where the window of opportunity opens up for Xander. This is where Xander finds his fun. Pleasant memories from these times provide a lifetime of happiness for Xander. Jupiter's influence is truly beneficial in most cases but can also suggest an area of excess, with food being the major culprit.

Jupiter in Virgo:

Xander's chores are numerous; starting with the youngest or smallest member of the family, Xander makes it a point to visit everyone and service them by grooming. Concerned over the welfare of others, Xander can offer comfort or give clues on how to obtain food. With a need to feel needed, Xander goes out of the way to show you just how sympathetic he can be.

Jupiter in the 9th house:

This wayward cat has traveled many a varied path. A lover of foreign places, Xander travels many miles. He is a teacher of other animals; it's almost as if they wait until Xander tries something first before partaking themselves. A very enlightened pussycat, wise to the ways of the world. Possibly once a feral cat, Xander has a desire to travel that may be too hard to control. Provide him with plenty of catnip and cat videos.

Jupiter Square Venus:

Xander's love of luxury could cause him to stray. Teach Xander healthy food habits which will make him happy to stay home. Give him a mate to spar with, someone to adore him for the way he is, and not take advantage of his generous affections.

Jupiter Opposition Mars:

Xander's couch potato habits may need revising. Encourage outdoor activity to provide him the exercise he needs. Not very enthusiastic unless motivated by food, Xander may need treats for you to see activity. Xander can be described as the alley cat of the neighborhood.

Jupiter Sextile Saturn:

Xander knows opportunity when it presents itself. He saw that when meeting you and has never let you forget it. Now a favorite in the household, Xander is respected by others who look up to him for his survival tactics.

Jupiter Square Pluto:

Xander can't take no for an answer and will show you this despite how often you try to remind him otherwise. He has a powerful calling or need to take care of things which may or may not always be safe or healthy for him. Let territory wars in your household work out without your intervention as long as no harm comes to the other animals. Xander won't easily back down from others, thinking that his way is the only way.

Saturn

Saturn shows us where there is restraint or obstructions in Xander's life. Saturn also shows us lessons Xander needs to learn in life and how he might accomplish this. This is where Xander learns to be resourceful and how to survive in life.

Saturn in Cancer:

Aloof and independent is the usual routine from this fickle feline. A stomach that is sensitive to extraneous substances may make Xander vomit more than once. He is a finicky eater owing to environmental stresses, and chronic indigestion could cause frequent regurgitation. Not the most affectionate kitten in the litter, Xander is certainly the most needy. Xander grows into a strong independent cat when older.

Saturn in the 8th house:

There were plans to keep Xander long before he was born. The pick of the litter was to go to a home that more than adequately provided for him. With everything a kitten could possibly need, Xander grows up to be quite a spoiled kitty cat. Xander lives a long life enjoying the catnip you provide for him in the garden.

Saturn Trine Mars:

Xander's focus cannot be deterred once initiated. If there's a chipmunk to be caught or a mouse that has to be relocated, Xander is the one to do the job. Xander can plan precisely how to go about this with his intense study of the object. Whoever said cats are not intelligent must not have met Xander.

Saturn Sextile Jupiter:

Xander makes good choices in life. He picked you and hasn't regretted it since. He is always fair to other animals he may share the house with. Other animals look at Xander with high esteem. This is a cat to reckon with that has earned his place of honor.

Uranus

Uranus demonstrates genius and intuitive abilities. Xander's independence is strongly influenced by where Uranus falls in his chart. This is where Xander's talents lie - waiting for you to discover them by subtle communication.

Uranus in Aquarius:

Xander's finely tuned senses allow him to receive mental messages easily and use them to his advantage. Xander's unselfish devotion to his friends and family is worth mention. He is willing to give up his time and energy to care and groom those in need. Food is given in loving anticipation of acceptance; Xander may even leave you a few tasty morsels for consumption. Reward him highly with praise and affection. Because of Xander's unselfish giving, he is often rewarded in life with many blessings to sustain him. A guardian angel resides on Xander's shoulder.

Uranus in the 3rd house:

Xander has been subject to strange occurrences on his travels through the neighborhood. Sudden unexpected turns of events may make travel both exciting and sometimes dangerous for him. Xander's communication skills are purely psychic and his insight into your mind and intentions is probably more accurate than your own. Trust Xander's judgement of others.

Uranus Square Mercury:

Xander has been known to have escaped the wrath of more than one unhappy encounter with playmates. Too smart for most of his housemates, Xander uses erratic behavior to keep them at bay through sheer awe. Even they cannot believe what Xander gets away with and will cower, knowing that trouble is to ensue. The true anarchist in the group, Xander may revert to unusual behavior to fend off enemies.

Neptune

Neptune shows you where and how Xander spends his spare time. Where does Xander's imagination take him when you are not there? Does he have a favorite escape that you are unaware of? What fantasy truly inspires Xander and sends him to nirvana? Xander returns here often when stressed, or just for fun. Neptune shows where he can achieve the same sensation with a little help from you.

Neptune in Aquarius:

Xander is far too ahead of his time to be appreciated. He is totally independent and it may be difficult to curb some of Xander's original ideas. Popular with many other animals, Xander shows them all new tricks to make life more interesting. Xander can be very animated and original in his displays for attention. Provide the opportunity for Xander to visit with other animals of his choosing. Always the life of the party, Xander dreams of having a house full of friendly animals he can play with.

Neptune in the 3rd house:

Psychic and quite capable of carrying on a conversation with you without words or meows, Xander has eyes that say it all. Communication is seldom difficult unless you're not paying attention. He is fond of traveling, especially to water. Xander will relish the idea of watching you fish for dinner. A fantasy that brings him near nirvana would be to sail the seas with you eating the catch of the day.

Pluto

Pluto is where Xander finds release from those powers that bind him. Old conditions that are no longer useful are eliminated. Obsessive or compulsive behavior that needs to be eliminated or changed will be here. Pluto forces Xander to deal with it. Pluto shows him how to transform for better or worse, and you may be the most likely Pluto character in Xander's chart. An awareness that nothing is permanent helps Xander accept the challenge that loss has brought him to where he is. Xander will find many new beginnings where Pluto falls in his chart. A constant renewal and regeneration awaits him there. Although not usually very malleable, Xander learns that this is where he must change to continue as planned. Xander soon sees that change can be good when he senses the improvement in your acceptance of him.

Pluto in Sagittarius:

Xander teaches all the other animals in the house how to behave. His unique understanding makes him a step above all others. A traveler by nature, Xander has been known to give up all to travel beyond his home environment. It is through these journeys that Xander learns things he can bring back to teach others. Looking for love in all the wrong places can be Xander's motive.

Pluto in the 1st house:

Xander's insecurities cause him to resort to defensive behavior when threatened. To him, a threat is anyone who might enter his domain without acknowledging him as boss. His need to be in complete control stems from a time when Xander was unable to fend for himself. Once Xander can stop neurotic behavior from interfering, he can develop a more meaningful relationship with you and the other animals in your house.

Pluto Conjunct Venus:

A magnetic personality your wonderful Xander has. Xander has no problem having others notice him. His suave demeanor and sleek, yet graceful ways, do not compare to the ordinary cat. Xander carries himself with an attitude of satisfaction knowing that he has the admiration of many. A winner overall in star quality. Special likes and dislikes may make Xander difficult to deal with. Understand that at times, Xander needs solitude and does not like any interference. This will alternate with Xander forcing himself on you. Maintaining his own independence is a process always in the making.

Pluto Square Jupiter:

Xander will resist any attempt to control him. You can lock the doors and windows but Xander still escapes. There is nothing that will keep Xander's wanderlust to a minimum. Have the cat door open and maintain a watchful eye out for others who might be harmful. Keep Xander's nails sharp for protection purposes and forget about your furniture for now.
